Identifying Seven Mind-Sets and how to break them

The workshop focuses on the following seven mind- sets that hinder creativity and innovation, in the shape of fun learning games called "Mind Openers"

Mind-Set 1 - "There's nothing in that Idea" (Believing the obvious)

Exercises : How to see beyond the obvious

Mind-Set 2 - "Can't see how it can be done" (Finding no way out)

Exercises : Removing self-imposed barriers

Mind-Set 3 - "There's only one way to look at it" (Developing short sightedness)

Exercises : How to identify alternatives and options

Mind-Set 4 - "Judgment on fact says it won't work" (Facts affecting judgment)

Exercises : Question whether facts are facts

Mind-Set 5 - "It won't work if you do that, this happens" (Pattern Breaking)

Exercises : Breaking pre-conceived notions

Mind-Set 6 - "It won't work when it comes to detail"(Too Complex)

Exercises : Ignoring the details to stay focused Taking a step back - a bird's eye view

Mind-Set 7 - "It's just impossible" (Negative biases)

Exercises : Finding ways to make it work
You don't know what's possible until you try

Training Methodology:

Training effectiveness is maximized by a combination of interactive action learning, group discussion, case-studies application practical sessions to provide you with readily applicable solution.
