Introduction

Heralded by Fortune Magazine as 'productivity breakthrough of the 90's' organizations that have successfully adopted 'teamwork' have reported massive improvements in productivity, job satisfaction, quality of work and customer satisfaction. Yet this seemingly simple and intuitive concept has proven to be a real challenge to implement. While almost every business concern claims teamwork to be an organizational value, most companies still comprise 'work groups' instead of true teams and thus fail to realize the enormous benefits of working synergistically.

The aim of this workshop is to help participants become better team players and catalysts to promote teamwork in their respective organizations. It is a highly experiential, and fun-filled learning program that has participants working in teams throughout the day to appreciate the power of teamwork and recognize and remove the barriers that prevent it.

Workshop Outline

- ✓ What makes a 'true' team?
- ✓ Differences between a team and a work group
- ✓ Advantages of Teamwork
- ✓ Need for teambuilding - self assessment
- ✓ Characteristics of an effective team
- ✓ Challenges of Teamwork
- ✓ Decision making and problem solving in Teams
- ✓ Developing consensus and resolving conflicts
- ✓ Team development stages

Activity Based Learning

- ✓ Open communication
- ✓ Planning
- ✓ Consensus building
- ✓ Optimal utilization of resources
- ✓ Effectively deploying complementary skills and other essentials of teamwork

Who Must Attend

Department Heads,
Senior Managers,
Managers, Team Leaders,
anyone and everyone in the organization responsible for working in and leading teams.

An essential workshop if 'teamwork' is an organizational value or you feel the need to promote inter and intra department harmony and synergy.
